The top 16 teams (based on regular season fall standings) in the league are invited to compete in nationals, at the Fall Championship.

Teams that play at least 7 regular season games are ranked by:

- average game points per game (AVE GP = total game points / # games played)
- tiebreaker #1: greatest average goal differential (AVE GD = total goals scored – total goals against / # games played)
- tiebreaker #2: least average goals against (AVE GA = total goals against / # games played)
- tiebreaker #3: greatest average goals scored (AVE GS = total goals scored / # games played)

CHAMPIONSHIP & CHALLENGE CUP RESULTS & STANDINGS

Coaches, players and spectators can now easily see live results and standings on our website.

Stay even more informed by downloading the Tourney Machine app and search for our event. There are two different events for the Championship Tournament and Challenge Cup.

To follow your favorite team, click “NOTIFICATIONS”, select your team and enter your preferred contact method.

A screenshot of the Tourney Machine website. A large blue arrow points from the 'NOTIFICATIONS' button to the '2023 NFHL Fall Championship' event details. The page shows the event dates (Nov 17 - 19, 2023) and location (Virginia Beach, VA). Below the event details, there are four tables showing pool standings for Pool A, Pool B, Pool C, and Pool D. Each table lists teams and their records in terms of Wins (W), Losses (L), Ties (T), Points (P), Goals For (GD), Goals Against (GS), and Goals (GA).
